We miss you!

Are you staying away from church due to COVID? Perhaps you are elderly, have a compromised system, or are caring for someone who is? Maybe you're just plain scared. With the protocols, the dispensations, daily update on numbers of infected, and so forth, who can blame you. However, you are not alone.

You are still a part of our faith community. Let us know if you are staying home.

We will take care of you.

We will pray for, and with you. If you want to receive the Divine Physician, Fr. Demetrio, Fr. Phil, one of the Deacons, or the extraordinary ministers will visit you at home and bring the Eucharist to you. Beyond the rules and restrictions, we want to bring the love of Christ and of our community to you. Please contact the office and let us know how we may best serve you. With God's help, through the intercession of Mary and the Saints, we can persevere.

¡Te extrañamos!

¿Se está alejando de la iglesia debido a COVID? ¿Quizás eres anciano, tienes un sistema comprometido o estás cuidando a alguien que lo es? Tal vez simplemente estás asustado. Con los protocolos, las dispensaciones, la actualización diaria sobre el número de infectados, etc., quién puede culparte. Sin embargo, no estas solo.

Sigues siendo parte de nuestra comunidad de fe. Háganos saber si se queda en casa.

Nosotros nos encargaremos de ti.

Oraremos por ti y contigo. Si quiere recibir al Médico Divino, el P. Demetrio, el P. Felipe, uno de los diáconos o los ministros extraordinarios lo visitarán en su casa y le traerán la Eucaristía. Más allá de las reglas y restricciones, queremos traerte el amor de Cristo y de nuestra comunidad. Comuníquese con la oficina y háganos saber cómo podemos servirle mejor. Con la ayuda de Dios, por intercesión de María y los santos, podemos perseverar.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Post quarantine reflection based on the Gospel of Luke 11:37-41

The Jewish tradition says that there are 613 commandments in the Torah or the Law of Moses. And the most zealous followers of the Law of Moses were the Pharisees. The gospel says: "The Pharisee was amazed to see that he did not observe the prescribed washing before the meal." Maybe a more appropriate word than "amazed" was "shocked" because many people thought that Jesus was a great teacher; hence, he ought to know enough on the Law of Moses. It turned out that he did not, and this Pharisee in our gospel today must have felt so dismayed that he looked down at Jesus right then and there.

Sometimes I think that following rules can often seem a much easier path to God. For example we think: If we do X or Y or Z, we are good people and we will be loved more by our God. But that's not how it works. Jesus wants us to follow God's commandments, but not at the cost of our ability to love our neighbors.

I learned one very important lesson during the time I was quarantined. My doctor reminded of the usual protocol, mask, no interaction, etc. She ordered me to undergo nose swab test right away. I asked her, and actually I intended it to be a joke: "Doc, what if I will turn out to be positive, will I die? She told me in reply: "No. I will take care of you." Six powerful words that suddenly gave life to the dry and often times irritating and impersonal health protocols. And we also do this in church. If you belong to the compromised category, don't come to church. You are dispensed and so you can watch mass on tv and can ask directly to God for the forgiveness of your sins, pray an act of contrition, and that's it. If you are not compromised, well, wear a mask when you come to church, observe distancing, etc. Faceless protocols that seem to lack real communion and relationship. I realized that something is terribly missing here. And my doctor showed me what. She actually opened my eyes! I realized that I also need to borrow her 6 powerful words. If you, in spite of your diligent following of our health protocols, will still get sick, or are still afraid to come to church, I will take care of you. I will bring to you the sacraments of the Divine Physician. This is a promise. Fr. Phil, our deacons, our lay ministers for the homebound promise to do the same. Yes this parish will take care of you. We will go to your place if you want us to.

This is what Jesus wants us to do, namely, to follow the rules without setting aside our ability to love and care for one another. This is what Jesus meant in the last sentence of our gospel today: "Give alms, and behold, everything will be clean for you." Our alms of caring will give a human heart to the rigid rules and policies. The sacrifice of good works is more precious than the literal following of the rules or the mere worship of our lips. Amen.

ESQUINA DEL PASTOR

Reflexión posterior a la cuarentena basada en el Evangelio de Lucas 11: 37-41

La tradición judía dice que hay 613 mandamientos en la Torá o la Ley de Moisés. Y los seguidores más celosos de la ley de Moisés fueron los fariseos. El evangelio dice: "El fariseo se asombró al ver que no observaba el lavamiento prescrito antes de la comida". Quizás una palabra más apropiada que "asombrado" era "escandalizado" porque mucha gente pensaba que Jesús era un gran maestro; por tanto, debería saber lo suficiente sobre la Ley de Moisés.

Resultó que no, y este fariseo en nuestro evangelio de hoy debe haberse sentido tan consternado que miró a Jesús en ese mismo momento.

A veces pienso que seguir las reglas a menudo puede parecer un camino mucho más fácil hacia Dios. Por ejemplo pensamos: si hacemos X o Y o Z, somos buenas personas y seremos más amados por nuestro Dios. Pero no es así como funciona. Jesús quiere que sigamos los mandamientos de Dios, pero no a costa de nuestra capacidad de amar a nuestro prójimo.

Aprendí una lección muy importante durante el tiempo que estuve en cuarentena. Mi médico me recordó el protocolo habitual, mascarilla, no interacción, etc. Me ordenó que me sometiera a una prueba de frotis nasal de inmediato. Le pregunté, y en realidad tenía la intención de que fuera una broma: "Doctor, ¿y si resulto ser positivo, moriré? Ella me respondió: "No. Yo te cuidaré." Seis palabras poderosas que de repente dieron vida a los protocolos de salud secos y muchas veces irritantes e impersonales. Y también hacemos esto en la iglesia. Si pertenece a la categoría comprometida, no venga a la iglesia. Estás dispensada y puedes ver misa en la televisión y puedes pedir directamente a Dios el perdón de tus pecados, rezar un acto de contrición, y eso es todo. Si no estás comprometido, bueno, usa una máscara cuando vengas a la iglesia, observa el distanciamiento, etc. Protocolos sin rostro que parecen carecer de comunión y relación real. Me di cuenta de que aquí falta algo terriblemente. Y mi médico me mostró qué. ¡Ella realmente abrió mis ojos! Me di cuenta de que también necesito tomar prestadas sus 6 poderosas palabras. Si usted, a pesar de seguir diligentemente nuestros protocolos de salud, todavía se enferma o todavía tiene miedo de ir a la iglesia, yo me ocuparé de usted. Les traeré los sacramentos del Médico Divino. Esto es una promesa. P. Phil, nuestros diáconos, nuestros ministros laicos para los confinados en casa prometen hacer lo mismo. Sí, esta parroquia se ocupará de ti. Iremos a tu casa si así lo deseas.

Esto es lo que Jesús quiere que hagamos, es decir, que sigamos las reglas sin dejar de lado nuestra capacidad de amarnos y cuidarnos unos a otros. Esto es lo que Jesús quiso decir en la última oración de nuestro evangelio de hoy: "Dad limosna, y he aquí, todo será limpio para vosotros". Nuestras limosnas de cariño darán un corazón humano a las rígidas reglas y políticas. El sacrificio de buenas obras es más precioso que el seguimiento literal de las reglas o la mera adoración de nuestros labios. Amén.

Orders will be available for pick up Nov. 17th, 20th, 21st and 22nd.

We may have extras available for sale, but specific requests should be made before the ordering deadline on October 25th.

● Dog bone wreaths – Our famous dog bone wreaths will be available for sale for both large and small dogs. Place your order online, or look for a limited number to be available after Mass.

● Mystic Monk Coffee - In a mountain valley in Wyoming, a small group of Carmelite Monks were looking for a way to support their growing community. They started roasting coffee and selling the beans online. The first samples were roasted on a cast-iron skillet in the monastery kitchen and in 2007, Mystic Monk Coffee was born. Place an order or purchase after Mass. <https://jacksoncouncilofcatholicwomen.square.site>

● Bake Sale Items – We are holding two bake sales after Masses the weekend of Oct. 24/25th and Nov. 21/22nd. ● Old Gold - We are collecting old gold...white, rose, or yellow...10K to 24K... with or without diamonds and stones. This is a wonderful opportunity to clean out your jewelry boxes and donate broken, orphaned, or unused jewelry! Lisa Knapp, the new owner of Thoenig's Jewelry, is coordinating these efforts. Bring your old gold to Mass in an envelope and give to the JCCW ladies selling wreaths and greens. Be sure to put your name and address on the envelope if you would like a receipt.

● Shoppers!! Of course!! We need you to make purchases after Mass or online. Please come Oct 24/25 and Nov. 21/22 to purchase some goodies after Mass for Halloween and Thanksgiving. Invite your friends, too! <https://jacksoncouncilofcatholicwomen.square.site>

The money raised at the Holiday Bazaar allows the JCCW to assist with needs of our parish and community.

For example: We host receptions for funerals and other fellowship gatherings, provide altar flowers and helped produce the parish photo directory. We sponsor an annual spiritual program open to all local women, provide scholarships for local youth, send care packages to seminarians, and make donations to worthy causes both locally and around the world.

Thank you in advance for your generosity to JCCW!

Please Note

The Bishop has issued a dispensation relieving all Catholics in Wyoming from their obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation until further notice. However, we know that many of you still hunger for the Eucharist and want to come to Mass. If you are unable to attend on Sundays (or Saturday afternoons), please note that reservations are not required at weekday Masses and there is plenty of space available.

Tenga en cuenta

El obispo ha emitido una dispensa que libera a todos los católicos en Wyoming de su obligación de asistir a misa los domingos y días de obligación hasta nuevo aviso. Sin embargo, sabemos que muchos de ustedes todavía tienen hambre de la Eucaristía y quieren venir a misa. Si no puede asistir los domingos (o sábados por la tarde), tenga en cuenta que no se requieren reservaciones en las misas entre semana y hay mucho espacio disponible.
