Living & Giving in Christ Update

Thank you to all who have responded to letters and pleas for the Living & Giving Campaign. Your generosity helps the Church fulfill its pastoral obligations.

Each year, OLM is co-responsible for a diocesan-wide goal, and without your contributions, we would have to make up the shortfall using funds from our general revenue. May God reward you and your family for your gifts to our parish! With a grateful and prayerful heart!

Thank You!

Actualización de Vivir y dar en Cristo

Gracias a todos los que han respondido a las cartas y las súplicas de la Campaña Living & Giving. Su generosidad ayuda a la Iglesia a cumplir con sus obligaciones pastorales. Cada año, OLM es corresponsable de una meta diocesana y, sin sus contribuciones, tendríamos que cubrir el déficit utilizando fondos de nuestros ingresos generales. ¡Que Dios le recompense a usted y a su familia por sus regalos a nuestra parroquia! ¡Con un corazón agradecido y orante!

The rising cost of living; the pain of separation (individuals and nations); abandoned children; daily crudity and violence on television; immigration; supreme court decisions legalizing murder, violence on US streets, etc. And if all that were not enough, nature itself seems to be out of sync: hurricanes, tornadoes, earthquakes, flooding, global warming.

Are you sufficiently depressed with this Sunday's readings? All this is indeed bad news. But we also call the Word of God, Good News! This kind of sick list incites some people to actually embrace today's gospel of a lightless moon and falling stars. Some people are disgusted with so much evil – how much worse can it get? And only God can clear up the moral mess and the sooner Jesus comes, the better.

But there are stories of grace all around us, God's presence in the midst of pain, prejudice and disability. Count your own moments of grace.

The mother and small child were waiting at the airport. The mother had given the little girl a cup of orange juice and a cookie to keep her occupied. Suddenly someone bumped into the mother who in turn brushed the child and the juice slopped all over her, with the cookie crumbs all over her face and front. A woman who observed all this spotted the father who just got off the plane and was waving to his family. He was neat in his nice suit, shirt and tie, carrying his brief case. The woman thought, "No way is he going near that messy child. He'll stay his distance, peck his wife on the cheek, and take off." Of course, he didn't do any of that. He ran up to the messy child, held her against his white shirt, and whispered loving things in her ear all the way to the luggage claim area, he never stopped hugging and kissing her, stroking her hair. Surely a reminder of God embracing the morally messy sinner. A moment of grace in a messy moment.

Yes, there are terrible things going on in the world. But faith people remind us that the hidden Lord is among us: Be alert for Him! Watch! He shows Himself in the most unexpected moments.

Hacedores de la Palabra Domingo, 14 de noviembre de 2021, 33 ° Antiguo Testamento

Un niño desordenado en un mundo desordenado.

El aumento del costo de vida; el dolor de la separación (individuos y naciones); niños abandonados; crudeza y violencia cotidianas en la televisión; inmigración; decisiones de la corte suprema que legalizan asesinatos, violencia en las calles de Estados Unidos, etc. Y por si todo eso no fuera suficiente, la naturaleza misma parece estar desincronizada: huracanes, tornados, terremotos, inundaciones, calentamiento global.

¿Estás lo suficientemente deprimido con las lecturas de este domingo? De hecho, todo esto es una mala noticia. ¡Pero también llamamos a la Palabra de Dios, Buenas Nuevas! Este tipo de lista de enfermos incita a algunas personas a abrazar el evangelio de hoy de una luna sin luz y estrellas fugaces. Algunas personas están disgustadas con tanta maldad, ¿cuánto peor se puede poner? Y solo Dios puede aclarar el desorden moral y cuanto antes venga Jesús, mejor.

Pero hay historias de gracia a nuestro alrededor, la presencia de Dios en medio del dolor, el prejuicio y la discapacidad. Cuente sus propios momentos de gracia.

La madre y el niño pequeño esperaban en el aeropuerto. La madre le había dado a la niña una taza de jugo de naranja y una galleta para mantenerla ocupada. De repente alguien chocó con la madre, quien a su vez cepilló al niño y el jugo se derramó sobre ella, con las migas de galleta por toda la cara y el frente. Una mujer que observó todo esto vio al padre que acababa de bajar del avión y estaba saludando a su familia. Estaba pulcro con su bonito traje, camisa y corbata, llevando su maletín. La mujer pensó: "De ninguna manera se acercará a ese niño desordenado. Se mantendrá a distancia, le dará un beso en la mejilla a su esposa y se largará".

Por supuesto, no hizo nada de eso. Corrió hacia la niña desordenada, la abrazó contra su camisa blanca y le susurró cosas amorosas al oído hasta el área de reclamo de equipaje, nunca dejó de abrazarla y besarla, acariciar su cabello. Seguramente un recordatorio de Dios abrazando al pecador moralmente desordenado. Un momento de gracia en un momento desordenado.

Sí, están sucediendo cosas terribles en el mundo. Pero la gente de fe nos recuerda que el Señor escondido está entre nosotros: ¡Estén atentos a Él! ¡Mirar! Se muestra en los momentos más inesperados.

Southwest Liturgical Conference

Annual Study Week

January 18 – 20, 2021

Formation Opportunities Abound as the Southwest Liturgical Conference celebrates its 60th Anniversary

Amid pandemic frustrations, the Southwest Liturgical Conference continues its mission to provide quality liturgical formation which supports the vision of the Second Vatican Council. This year, the Study Week will take place virtually January 18-20. The theme Bearers of Hope: Renewing the Body of Christ will explore the celebration of sacraments and activities, as parishes reopen. How do we embrace the days ahead within our families, our parish community and the world? Keynote speakers include Dr. Anne McGowan, Bishop Robert M. Coerver, and Dr. Timothy O'Malley, with presentations from Fr. Paul Turner, Robert Feduccia, Pedro Rubalcava, Fr. Patrick Hannon, Dr. Dolores Martinez, and Diana Macalintal.

"The Southwest Liturgical Conference is the longest running liturgical conference in the United States. This year is our 60th year of formation and despite the challenges of the pandemic, there are many blessings. We are able to bring our conference virtually to everyone and many notable authors and academic leaders have agreed to participate" says Ruth Dillon, President of the Southwest Liturgical Board. "To share this opportunity with everyone, we have chosen to celebrate by offering a special anniversary registration rate of $60 if you sign up before November 19. We are also going to offer a group rate so if a parish liturgy committee, an RCIA team, an art and environment team, or interested parishioners wish to take advantage of the formation, a group of up to 10 persons can register for full access for $300. Additionally, the content will be available online for 60 days afterwards so unlike a live conference, participants can actually attend all the workshops if they so choose."

In addition to quality formation and time for prayer together, attendees will have an opportunity to visit the virtual exhibitor booths where publishers and artists alike will share insights and information about their creative process and products.

"The Southwest Liturgical Conference has a rich tradition of formation and support for our dioceses and parishes for over 60 years and we want to celebrant that history. All clergy, catechists, ministers, musicians, parish staff and those in the pew, are invited to attend", says Mrs. Dillon.

The conference will conclude with a special presentation featuring several bishops who will reflect on the liturgy post 1961 and the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy; the Latino influence and involvement in the liturgy over the past 60 years; reflections on the contributions of the Southwest Liturgical Conference to the liturgical life of the church and thoughts about the reform of the liturgy today.

Registration is now open. Go to www.swlc.org for all the conference details.

Diocese of Cheyenne

Our parish will come together on Sunday November 28 at TIME and PLACE to pray together and talk about "how well we are walking together as Church." This week, pray with Acts 2:42-47 and examine how responsibility and power are lived in the Church, as well as the structures by which they are managed. Consider any distorted practices that are not rooted in the Gospel. Remember to record your thoughts in a journal.

Diócesis de Cheyenne

Nuestra parroquia se reunirá el domingo 28 de noviembre a la HORA y el LUGAR para orar juntos y hablar sobre "lo bien que estamos caminando juntos como Iglesia". Esta semana, ore con Hechos 2: 42-47 y examine cómo se vive la responsabilidad y el poder en la Iglesia, así como las estructuras mediante las cuales se administran. Considere cualquier práctica distorsionada que no esté arraigada en el Evangelio. Recuerde registrar sus pensamientos en un diario.

Pope Francis declares the “Year of Saint Joseph”

(Dec 8th, 2020-Dec 8th, 2021)

To mark the 150th anniversary of the declaration naming St. Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church, Pope Francis has declared this year to be the Year of St. Joseph. Let us humbly pray that we may be blessed with St. Joseph’s “creative courage” as we continue to struggle through these difficult times and help us to trust in the divine providence of God.

El Papa Francisco declara el "Año de San José"

(8 de diciembre de 2020 al 8 de diciembre de 2021)

Para marcar el 150 aniversario de la declaración que nombró a San José como Patrón de la Iglesia Universal, el Papa Francisco ha declarado este año como el Año de San José. Oremos humildemente para que podamos ser bendecidos con el "valor creativo" de San José mientras continuamos luchando a través de estos tiempos difíciles y ayúdanos a confiar en la divina providencia de Dios.
