*Tu palabra es una lámpara a mis pies; es una luz en mi sendero.
Salmo 119:105*

The Heart of Happiness

What is the goal of life, what does everyone seek, in truth? All of us seek / want happiness. Some of us will call this blessedness. I believe that blessedness comes from the outside. Blessedness is a gift ---an undeserved, bonus, a surprise, a pleasant fragrance of life itself. Happiness is not a destination but rather, I believe a homecoming. Happiness and Blessedness just happens.

If blessedness is unscheduled, unplanned, unearned it is more likely to come to us in certain situations. I truly believe that blessedness/happiness most likely follows some attitudes and actions that we express or live simply. Happiness is somewhat inexplicable to me but . . .we know it when we feel it, right? It is the feeling (or grace) of contentment, peace, wholeness, goodness. It is strange to me that the "heart of happiness" lies in poverty. Please, reflect spiritually on this paradox this week and what are we gonna do about in our personal lives.

Father Dan

El Corazón de la Felicidad

¿Cuál es la meta de la vida, qué busca cada uno, en verdad? Todos buscamos/queremos la felicidad. Algunos de nosotros llamaremos a esto bienaventuranza. Yo creo que la bienaventuranza viene del exterior. La bienaventuranza es un regalo, una bonificación inmerecida, una sorpresa, una agradable fragancia de la vida misma. La felicidad no es un destino, sino más bien, creo, un regreso a casa. La felicidad y la bienaventuranza simplemente suceden.

Si la bienaventuranza no es programada, no planificada, no ganada, es más probable que nos llegue en ciertas situaciones. Realmente creo que la bienaventuranza/felicidad muy probablemente sigue algunas actitudes y acciones que expresamos o vivimos simplemente. La felicidad es algo inexplicable para mí pero. . .lo sabemos cuando lo sentimos, ¿verdad? Es el sentimiento (o gracia) de satisfacción, paz, plenitud, bondad. Me resulta extraño que el "corazón de la felicidad" mienta en la pobreza Por favor, reflexione espiritualmente sobre esta paradoja esta semana y qué vamos a hacer en nuestras vidas personales.

Jeremiah, Jesus & Kevin

What a combination! There must be a hidden message in the threesome. Jeremiah utters the words of the Lord, “Cursed is the one who trusts in men... he is like a barren bush in the desert that enjoys no change of season but stands in a lava waste a salty and empty earth.”

Jesus says, “Woe to you who are rich, woe to you who are filled now, woe to you who laugh now and a double woe when everyone speaks well of you.”

OK! Happy Valentine’s Day anyway, tomorrow! But today? Blessed are the poor, the hungry, the weeping, the unemployed, the kids with alcoholic parents, the hated, the unwelcome, the migrants, the sick, the homebound... and Kevin Hines.

He was eighteen years old and decided to give up his fight with depression by jumping off the San Franciscan Golden Gate Bridge. As he paced and cried along the bridge sidewalk, Kevin looked for someone who would talk him out of his crazy decision, if even one person expressed concern for him, then Kevin was prepared to back down. But not one passerby gave Kevin a second glance with one exception – a tourist asked him to take her picture. Not one person, including the tourist, cared enough to try to intervene to keep him from killing himself. Finally, Kevin climbed up on the guardrail and threw himself 220 feet into the waters below.

“Woe to you who are rich with life, too rich to rescue another. Woe to you who are filled with satisfaction, too filled to share with an empty heart. Woe to you who laugh, to giddy to sense despair and sadness.”

Well, Kevin survived his jump, although he suffered very serious injuries. While recovering from his injuries, he received some encouraging advice from a visiting priest: “You are a miracle. Now go out and save lives.” He took the advice to heart. He went back to school and is working to put the priests’ words into action in his life and in the lives of others.

So, again, Happy Valentine’s Tomorrow!

Hacedores de la Palabra Domingo, 13 de febrero de 2022, 6to domingo OTJeremías, Jesús y Kevin ¡Qué combinación! Debe haber un mensaje oculto en el trío. Jeremías pronuncia las palabras del Señor: “Maldito el que confía en los hombres... es como una zarza estéril en el desierto que no disfruta de cambio de estación, sino que se encuentra en una lava que desperdicia una tierra salada y vacía”.

Jesús dice: “¡Ay de ustedes los ricos, ay de ustedes los que ahora están saciados, ay de ustedes que ahora se ríen y doble ay cuando todos hablen bien de ustedes!”.

¡OK! ¡Feliz día de San Valentín de todos modos, mañana! ¿Pero hoy?

Bienaventurados los pobres, los hambrientos, los llorones, los desempleados, los niños con padres alcohólicos, los odiados, los no bienvenidos, los migrantes, los enfermos, los confinados en casa... y Kevin Hines.

Tenía dieciocho años y decidió renunciar a su lucha contra la depresión saltando desde el puente Golden Gate de San Francisco. Mientras caminaba y lloraba por la acera del puente, Kevin buscó a alguien que lo disuadiera de su loca decisión, si incluso una persona expresaba preocupación por él, entonces Kevin estaba preparado para dar marcha atrás. Pero ningún transeúnte miró a Kevin por segunda vez con una excepción: un turista le pidió que le tomara una foto. Ninguna persona, incluido el turista, se preocupó lo suficiente como para intentar intervenir para evitar que se suicidara. Finalmente, Kevin se subió a la barandilla y se arrojó 220 pies a las aguas de abajo.

“Ay de ustedes que son ricos en vida, demasiado ricos para rescatar a otro. ¡Ay de ustedes que están llenos de satisfacción, demasiado llenos para compartir con un corazón vacío! ¡Ay de los que ríen, de los que se marean al sentir desesperación y tristeza!”.

Bueno, Kevin sobrevivió a su salto, aunque sufrió heridas muy graves. Mientras se recuperaba de sus heridas, recibió un consejo alentador de un sacerdote visitante: “Eres un milagro. Ahora sal y salva vidas”. Tomó el consejo en serio. Regresó a la escuela y está trabajando para poner en práctica las palabras de los sacerdotes en su vida y en la vida de los demás.

Así que, de nuevo, ¡Feliz mañana de San Valentín!

Week Update from Fr. D

Last week I had a patient whom I knew in the late '90s. We were both working at that time in the same college in Manila. He was the registrar, and I was the VP of Student Welfare and the Dean of the Religious Education Department at the same time. He retired in 1999, and all his family migrated to the US I had never heard of him since then. What a reunion in the most unexpected place, a hospital! He did not recognize me, although he said he remembered my name. We talked a lot about so many things. I asked him one thing that made me smile. I said, "Sir, what is the name of your wife again?" He replied, "Ah, let me see, Father, I don't remember. I always call her mommy." I think he has early signs of dementia. The next day I paid him another visit, and it was his birthday. So I went down to the gift shop and bought him some balloons. He is now 83 years old. Well, it is a small world, after all! I hope he is now back home to celebrate a belated birthday gathering with his family.

One day, I will be like, sir, forgetful. But the Lord will never forget us. As Isaiah wrote: "I, the Lord, made you, and I will not forget you." (Isaiah 44:21)

Fr. D

Actualización de la semana del Padre Demetrio

La semana pasada tuve un paciente al que conocí a finales de los 90. Ambos trabajábamos en ese momento en la misma universidad en Manila. Él era el registrador y yo era el VP de Bienestar Estudiantil y el Decano del Departamento de Educación Religiosa al mismo tiempo. Se jubiló en 1999 y toda su familia emigró a los EE. UU. Nunca más supe de él desde entonces. ¡Qué reencuentro en el lugar más inesperado, un hospital! No me reconoció, aunque dijo que recordaba mi nombre. Hablamos mucho de tantas cosas. Le pregunté una cosa que me hizo sonreír. Le dije: "Señor, ¿cuál es el nombre de su esposa otra vez?" Él respondió: "Ah, déjeme ver, padre, no me acuerdo. Siempre la llamo mami". Creo que tiene signos tempranos de demencia. Al día siguiente le hice otra visita y era su cumpleaños. Así que bajé a la tienda de regalos y le compré algunos globos. Ahora tiene 83 años. ¡Bueno, es un mundo pequeño, después de todo! Espero que ahora esté de regreso en casa para celebrar una reunión de cumpleaños tardía con su familia.

Un día, seré como, señor, olvidadizo. Pero el Señor nunca nos olvidará. Como escribió Isaías: "Yo, el Señor, te hice, y no te olvidaré". (Isaías 44:21)
