Hispanic Ministries

The Latino community has been working with the Diocesan Director of the Hispanic Ministry, Deacon Benny Yupanqui on creating more Latino ministries. He has been helping all the parishes within the Diocese of Cheyenne have more ministry opportunities for Latinos. The goal is to have 6 ministries, some new and some we already have. We would have a leader for each ministry and they would be serving for a 1 yr term.

The 6 ministries and the current leaders for each ministry are as follow:

- Liturgy = Juan Jimenez
- Matrimony = Maria Sanchez y Rosalio Cervantes
- Youth ministry = Guadalupe Cabrera
- Faith formation = Karina Vargas
- Prayer = Anayeli Sánchez
- Evangelization = Lidia Corona

These leaders are temporary leaders as we want the community to choose their leaders.

We will have a meeting with our priests, the community and Deacon Benny on Friday, April 29th after the 7:00pm Mass to elect and vote for the leaders. We want the community to participate in voting for their leaders, so your presence is important.

Ministerio Hispano

La comunidad latina ha estado trabajando con el Director Diocesano del Ministerio Hispano, el Diácono Benny Yupanqui, en la creación de más ministerios latinos. Ha estado ayudando a todas las parroquias dentro de la Diócesis de Cheyenne a tener más oportunidades de ministerio para los latinos. La meta es tener 6 ministerios, algunos nuevos y otros que ya tenemos. Tendríamos un líder para cada ministerio y estarían sirviendo por un término de 1 año.

Los 6 ministerios y los líderes actuales de cada ministerio son los siguientes:

- Liturgia = Juan Jiménez
- Matrimonio = María Sánchez y Rosalio Cervantes
- Ministerio juvenil = Guadalupe Cabrera
- Formación en la fe = Karina Vargas
- Oración = Anayeli Sánchez
- Evangelización = Lidia Corona

Estos líderes son líderes temporales ya que queremos que la comunidad elija a sus líderes.

Tendremos una reunión con nuestros sacerdotes, la comunidad y el diácono Benny el viernes 29 de abril después de la misa de las 7:00 p. m. para elegir y votar por los líderes. Queremos que la comunidad participe en la votación de sus líderes, por lo que su presencia es importante.

On Palm Sunday two processions entered Jerusalem at Passover, a time when the people celebrated their deliverance from the Egyptians and now with hopes of being freed from Roman dominance. Pilate's procession rode in from the West with his 600 troops to squelch the predicted riots. Jesus' procession entered the city from the East. Pilate was on a warhorse; Jesus rode a donkey. Jesus versus Pilate, the non-violence of the Kingdom of God versus the violence of the empire. What a contrast: two arrivals, two processions, two ways of life, represented on Palm Sunday.

Next day, Monday, Jesus takes on the Temple authorities. He chides them for making the Temple a den of thieves – not a place where robbers rob but where they fled after having robbed elsewhere.

On Tuesday, Jesus is in debate again with the Temple authorities who want to seize him but Jesus fortunately is surrounded by his followers. So, they back off.

Then on Wednesday Judas makes a deal to betray Jesus ... the deal being that the soldiers would come on Thursday evening to seize Jesus, when his followers had dispersed for the night.

On Friday Jesus stands in the courtyard of Pilate with a small crowd, this one being Pilate's crowd that shouted "Crucify Him," and Jesus is wrongly executed by the imperial power between two thieves. Saturday – the Silence of the Lambs...

Sunday, the day we celebrate today. Jesus is raised from the dead by Divine Power. What does Easter 2022 mean? That God is on collision course with injustice, with violence, with exploitation. Translate this into contemporary terms. God is against all betrayals, denials, corruption. God is against the politically correct judgment of Pilate, who had initially judged Jesus innocent of capital offense. God is against a tyrant who invades the sovereignty of another country. He is against the killing of innocent people even when it is done by a supreme court decision.

So, what is the Easter story for us? About turning the other cheek, going the extra mile, giving the coat, reconciling with brother, sister, neighbor, enemy – then to the altar! So, are you entering Jerusalem from the east or the west? On a donkey or a warhorse? The choice is yours! Happy Easter!

Hacedores de la Palabra Domingo de Pascua, 17 de abril de 2022 Repaso de la Semana Santa

El Domingo de Ramos, dos procesiones entraron en Jerusalén en Pascua, un momento en que el pueblo celebraba su liberación de los egipcios y ahora con la esperanza de ser liberado del dominio romano. La procesión de Pilato cabalgó desde el oeste con sus 600 soldados para sofocar los disturbios previstos. La procesión de Jesús entró en la ciudad desde el Este. Pilato estaba en un caballo de guerra; Jesús montó un burro. Jesús versus Pilato, la no violencia del Reino de Dios versus la violencia del imperio. Qué contraste: dos llegadas, dos procesiones, dos modos de vida, representados el Domingo de Ramos.

Al día siguiente, lunes, Jesús se enfrenta a las autoridades del Templo. Los reprende por hacer del Templo una cueva de ladrones, no un lugar donde los ladrones roban, sino a donde huyen después de haber robado en otro lugar.

El martes, Jesús vuelve a estar en debate con las autoridades del Templo que quieren prenderlo pero afortunadamente Jesús está rodeado de sus seguidores. Entonces, retroceden.

Luego, el miércoles, Judas hace un trato para traicionar a Jesús... el trato es que los soldados vendrían el jueves por la noche para capturar a Jesús, cuando sus seguidores se habían dispersado por la noche.

El viernes, Jesús está en el patio de Pilato con una pequeña multitud, esta siendo la multitud de Pilato que gritaba "Crucifícalo", y Jesús es ejecutado injustamente por el poder imperial entre dos ladrones. Sábado – El Silencio de los Corderos...

Domingo, el día que celebramos hoy. Jesús resucitó de entre los muertos por el poder divino. ¿Qué significa Semana Santa 2022? Que Dios está en curso de colisión con la injusticia, con la violencia, con la explotación. Traduce esto a términos contemporáneos. Dios está en contra de todas las traiciones, negaciones, corrupción. Dios está en contra del juicio políticamente correcto de Pilato, quien inicialmente había juzgado a Jesús inocente de la ofensa capital. Dios está en contra de un tirano que invade la soberanía de otro país. Está en contra del asesinato de personas inocentes, incluso cuando se hace por decisión de la corte suprema.

Entonces, ¿qué es la historia de Pascua para nosotros? Acerca de poner la otra mejilla, hacer un esfuerzo adicional, dar el abrigo, reconciliarse con el hermano, la hermana, el vecino, el enemigo, ¡entonces al altar! Entonces, ¿estás entrando a Jerusalén desde el este o el oeste? ¿En un burro o en un caballo de guerra? ¡La decisión es tuya! ¡Felices Pascuas!
