New - Summer Adult Bible Study

Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life

Jesus is our savior, our redeemer, our Lord, and our God. Our belief in Jesus is what makes us who we are as Catholics, as Christians, but do we really know him as we should? Is Jesus a part of your life, or is he at the center of your life as he should be?

We invite you to make him the center of your life by joining us for Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life, a 10-week video study program that explores the entirety of Jesus' life and what he means for us as Catholics today. Our Lady of the Mountains will begin the Jesus study on Tuesday, June 14th at 10:30am or Wednesday, June 15th at 6:00 pm. Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation, filmed in the Holy Land, followed by a lively group discussion and fellowship.

Classes will be presented live and via Zoom. For more information or to register, contact Deacon Richard at 307-733-2516 or DeaconRichardOLM@gmail.com. Please register by June 6th. We hope you join us!

Our Lady of the Mountains

Corpus Christi Mass, Procession, & Picnic!

Sunday, June 19

Sunday, June 19th is the Feast of Corpus Christi (The Body and Blood of Christ)! In keeping with the eight century-old tradition of the Catholic Church, after Holy Communion at our 12:00 pm Mass, we will all solemnly process the Blessed Sacrament out of our Church and through the streets of Jackson (around the block where Our Lady of the Mountains is situated). At three locations on our block we will have erected altars where we will stop to pray and receive blessings with the Blessed Sacrament. Since the 12:00 Mass on that day will be a bilingual Mass, we encourage both English-speaking and Spanish-speaking parishioners to attend that Mass. Or you can return just for the Procession (about 12:45 pm) if you attended an earlier Mass that weekend. We'll also invite parishioners from Holy Family in Thayne, as well.

Following the Procession we will have a parish picnic and celebration to honor all fathers present (it's Father's Day, too!), as well as to just rejoice in the day! The picnic will take place on the lawn between the two rectories at our parish. Burgers and hot dogs as well as drinks will be provided, but we ask each family to bring something as well: if your last name begins with letters A – K please bring a dessert; if your last name begins with letters L – Z please bring a side dish or picnic salad. We will have tables and chairs set for the picnic, but it might be a good idea to bring some lawn chairs if you can.

This is a great way for you to proclaim your Catholic faith to the world!

Those who attended last year had a terrific time, so we hope to see you there!

Nuestra Señora de las Montañas

¡Misa de Corpus Christi, Procesión y Picnic!

Domingo, 19 de Junio

¡El Domingo 19 de Junio es la Fiesta del Corpus Christi (El Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo)! De acuerdo con la tradición de ocho siglos de antigüedad de la Iglesia Católica, después de la Santa Comunión en nuestra Misa de las 12:00 p. de la Sierra está situado). En tres lugares de nuestra cuadra habremos erigido altares donde nos detendremos para orar y recibir bendiciones con el Santísimo Sacramento. Dado que la Misa de las 12:00 de ese día será una Misa bilingüe, alentamos a los feligreses de habla inglesa y de habla hispana a asistir a esa Misa. O puede regresar solo para la Procesión (alrededor de las 12:45 p. m.) si asistió a una Misa anterior ese fin de semana. También invitaremos a feligreses de la Sagrada Familia en Thayne.

Después de la Procesión, tendremos un picnic parroquial y una celebración para honrar a todos los padres presentes (¡también es el Día del Padre!), ¡y también para regocijarnos en el día! El picnic se llevará a cabo en el césped entre las dos rectorías de nuestra parroquia. Se proporcionarán hamburguesas y perros calientes, así como bebidas, pero le pedimos a cada familia que traiga algo también: si su apellido comienza con las letras A - K, traiga un postre; si su apellido comienza con las letras L – Z, traiga una guarnición o una ensalada de picnic. Tendremos mesas y sillas preparadas para el picnic, pero sería una buena idea traer algunas sillas de jardín si puede.

¡Esta es una excelente manera de proclamar su fe católica al mundo!

Los que asistieron el año pasado se lo pasaron genial, ¡así que esperamos verlos allí!

The Gospel of John devotes one-third of his book to the 24-hour period immediately preceding Jesus' death. Chapters 13-17 describe one of the scenes from that long day and night.

Jesus is around the table with his 11 apostles – one has already left, his final words to them are of hope, “Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.” He will soon leave the earth to return to the Father. (As one child put it, “the Bible means Basic Instructions Before Leaving Earth.) And here is the fine point: Someone else will come to live inside them: The Spirit. They nod their heads but it will only make sense later.

Fast forward: The 1990's Algerian Civil War. On the night of 26-27 March 1996, seven Roman Catholic Trappist Monks from Our Lady of the Atlas Abbey of Tibhirine near Medea, Algeria, were kidnapped. They were living a life of prayer and serving the poor people in the area. Islamic terrorism grows more intense each day. The monks have to decide: to flee or to stay. They spend hours and days at prayer to make the final decision... it is to stay!

The movie of these monks shows them recreating the Last Supper by sitting around a small table drinking wine and listening to a recording of Tchaikovsky's “Swan Lake.” The camera shows the faces of the monks – a beatific smile on some faces, tears on others. Not long after their “Last Supper” in 1996, they are all beheaded. As he approaches his death, the abbot, mindful of Jesus on calvary, addresses the Islamic militant whose sword would kill him, “You, my friend, who do not know what you are doing, yes, for you too, I give you farewell and commend you to the God whose face I see in yours.” And his head rolls into the dust.

Hacedores de la Palabra domingo, 22 de mayo de 2022 La noche más larga

El Evangelio de Juan dedica un tercio de su libro al período de 24 horas inmediatamente anterior a la muerte de Jesús. Los capítulos 13-17 describen una de las escenas de ese largo día y noche.

Jesús está alrededor de la mesa con sus 11 apóstoles, uno ya se ha ido, sus últimas palabras para ellos son de esperanza: “No se turbe vuestro corazón ni tenga miedo”. Pronto dejará la tierra para volver al Padre. (Como dijo un niño, “la Biblia significa Instrucciones Básicas Antes de Dejar la Tierra.) Y aquí está el punto fino: Alguien más vendrá a vivir dentro de ellos: El Espíritu. Asienten con la cabeza, pero solo tendrá sentido más tarde.

Avance rápido: la guerra civil argelina de 1990. En la noche del 26 al 27 de marzo de 1996, siete monjes trapenses católicos romanos de la abadía de Nuestra Señora del Atlas de Tibhirine, cerca de Medea, Argelia, fueron secuestrados. Vivían una vida de oración y sirviendo a los pobres de la zona. El terrorismo islámico se intensifica cada día más. Los monjes tienen que decidir: huir o quedarse. Pasan horas y días en oración para tomar la decisión final... ¡quedarse!

La película de estos monjes los muestra recreando la Última Cena sentados alrededor de una pequeña mesa bebiendo vino y escuchando una grabación de “El lago de los cisnes” de Tchaikovsky. La cámara muestra los rostros de los monjes: una sonrisa beatífica en algunos rostros, lágrimas en otros. No mucho después de su “Última Cena” en 1996, todos son decapitados. Al acercarse a su muerte, el abad, recordando a Jesús en el calvario, se dirige al militante islámico cuya espada lo mataría: “Tú, amigo mío, que no sabes lo que haces, sí, de ti también me despido de ti. y os encomiendo al Dios cuyo rostro veo en el vuestro”. Y su cabeza rueda por el polvo.
