Sunday, July 10, 2022 15th Ordinary Time A High School “Good Samaritan” Story

One day, when I was a freshman in high school, I saw a kid from my class walking home from school. His name was Kyle. It looked like he was carrying all of his books. I thought to myself, “Why would anyone bring home all his books on a Friday? He must really be a nerd.” I had quite a weekend planned with parties and a football game with my friends.

As I was walking, I saw a bunch of kids running toward him, knocking all his books out of his arms and tripping him so he landed in the dirt. His glasses went flying, and I saw them land in the grass about ten feet from him. He looked up and I saw this terrible sadness in his eyes. My heart went out to him. So, I jogged over to him as he crawled around looking for his glasses, and I saw a tear in his eye. As I handed him his glasses, I said, “Those guys are jerks.” They really should get lives. “He looked at me and said, “Hey thanks!” There was a big smile on his face. It was one of those smiles that showed real gratitude. I helped him pick up his books, and asked him where he lived. As it turned out, he lived near me, so I asked him why I had never seen him before. He said he had gone to private school before now. I would have never hung out with a private school kid before.

We talked all the way home, and I carried some of his books. He turned out to be a pretty cool kid. I asked him if he wanted to play a little football with my friends. He said yes. We hung out all weekend and the more I got to know Kyle, the more I liked him, and my friends thought the same of him.

Monday morning came! And there was Kyle with the huge stack of books again. I stopped him and said, “Boy, you are going to really build some serious muscles with this pile of books every day! He just laughed! And handed me half the books.

Over the next four years, Kyle and I became best friends. When we were seniors, we began to think about college. Kyle decided on Georgetown, and I was going to Duke. I knew that we would always be friends, that the miles would never be a problem. He was going to be a doctor, and I was going for business on a football scholarship. Kyle was valedictorian of our class. I teased him all the time about being a nerd. He had to prepare a speech for graduation. I was so glad it wasn't me having to get up there and speak.

Graduation day, I saw Kyle. He looked great. He was one of those guys that really found himself during high school. He filled out and actually looked good in glasses. He had more dates than I had and all the girls loved him. Boy, sometimes I was jealous! Today was one of those days. I could see that he was nervous about his speech. So, I smacked him on the back and said, “Hey, big guy, you'll be great!” He looked at me and smiled. “Thanks,” he said. As he started his speech, he cleared his throat, and began. “Graduation is a time to thank those who helped you make it through those tough years. Your parents, your teachers, your siblings, maybe a coach. But mostly your friends... I am here to tell all of you that being a friend to someone is the best gift you can give them. I am going to tell you a story.”

I just looked at my friend with disbelief as he told the story of the first day we met. He had planned to kill himself over the weekend. He talked of how he had cleaned out his locker so his mom wouldn't have to do it later and was carrying his stuff home. He looked hard at me and gave me a little smile. “Thankfully, I was saved. My friend saved me from doing the unspeakable.” I heard the gasp go through the crowd as this handsome, popular boy told us all about his weakest moment. I saw his mom and dad looking at me and smiling that same grateful smile. Not until that moment did I realize its depth.

Never underestimate the power of your actions. With one small gesture you can change a person's life. For better or for worse. God puts us all in each other's lives to impact one another in some way. Look for God in others.

Domingo, 10 de julio de 2022 Decimoquinto tiempo ordinario Una historia del "buen samaritano" de la escuela secundaria

Un día, cuando era estudiante de primer año en la escuela secundaria, vi a un niño de mi clase caminando a casa desde la escuela. Su nombre era Kyle. Parecía que llevaba todos sus libros. Pensé para mis adentros: "¿Por qué alguien traería a casa todos sus libros un viernes? Realmente debe ser un nerd. Tenía planeado un buen fin de semana con fiestas y un partido de fútbol con mis amigos.

Mientras caminaba, vi a un grupo de niños corriendo hacia él, tirándole todos los libros de los brazos y haciéndolo tropezar, de modo que aterrizó en el suelo. Sus anteojos salieron volando y los vi aterrizar en la hierba a unos tres metros de él. Miró hacia arriba y vi esta terrible tristeza en sus ojos. Mi corazón estaba con él. Entonces, corrí hacia él mientras gateaba buscando sus anteojos, y vi una lágrima en su ojo. Cuando le entregué sus anteojos, dije: "Esos tipos son idiotas". Realmente deberían conseguir vidas. "Él me miró y dijo: '¡Oye, gracias! Había una gran sonrisa en su rostro. Era una de esas sonrisas que mostraban verdadera gratitud. Lo ayudé a recoger sus libros y le pregunté dónde vivía. Resultó que vivía cerca de mí, así que le pregunté por qué nunca lo había visto antes. Dijo que antes había ido a una escuela privada. Nunca antes me habría juntado con un chico de una escuela privada.

Hablamos todo el camino a casa, y llevé algunos de sus libros. Resultó ser un chico bastante genial. Le pregunté si quería jugar un poco de fútbol con mis amigos. El dijo que sí. Salimos todo el fin de semana y cuanto más conocía a Kyle, más me gustaba y mis amigos pensaban lo mismo de él.

¡Llegó la mañana del lunes! Y ahí estaba Kyle con la enorme pila de libros otra vez. Lo detuve y le dije: "¡Muchacho, realmente vas a desarrollar algunos músculos serios con esta pila de libros todos los días! ¡Él solo se rió! Y me entregó la mitad de los libros.

Durante los siguientes cuatro años, Kyle y yo nos hicimos mejores amigos. Cuando éramos mayores, empezamos a pensar en la universidad. Kyle se decidió por Georgetown y yo iría a Duke. Sabía que siempre seríamos amigos, que las millas nunca serían un problema. Él iba a ser médico y yo iba a hacer negocios con una beca de fútbol. Kyle fue el mejor estudiante de nuestra clase. Me burlaba de él todo el tiempo por ser un nerd. Tenía que preparar un discurso para la graduación. Estaba tan contenta de que no fuera yo quien tuviera que subir y hablar.

El día de la graduación, vi a Kyle. Se veía genial. Era uno de esos tipos que realmente se encontró a sí mismo durante la escuela secundaria. Se llenó y en realidad se veía bien con anteojos. Tenía más citas que yo y todas las chicas lo amaban. ¡Vaya, a veces estaba celoso! Hoy fue uno de esos días. Pude ver que estaba nervioso por su discurso. Entonces, lo golpeé en la espalda y le dije: "¡Oye, grandullón, serás genial!". El me miró y sonrió. "Gracias", dijo. Mientras miraba su discurso, se aclaró la garganta y comenzó. "La graduación es un momento para agradecer a quienes te ayudaron a superar esos años difíciles. Tus padres, tus maestros, tus hermanos, tal vez un entrenador. Pero sobre todo tus amigos... Estoy aquí para decirles a todos que ser amigo de alguien es el mejor regalo que le pueden dar. Te voy a contar una historia".

Solo miré a mi amigo con incredulidad mientras contaba la historia del primer día que nos conocimos. Se había planeado suicidarse durante el fin de semana. Habló de cómo había limpiado su casillero para que su mamá no tuviera que hacerlo más tarde y estaba llevando sus cosas a casa. Me miró fijamente y me dio una pequeña sonrisa. "Afortunadamente, me salvé. Mi amigo me salvó de hacer lo indecible". Escuché el grito ahogado de la multitud cuando este guapo y popular chico nos contó todo sobre su momento más débil. Vi a su mamá y papá mirándome y sonriendo con esa misma sonrisa agradecida. No fue hasta ese momento que me di cuenta de su profundidad.

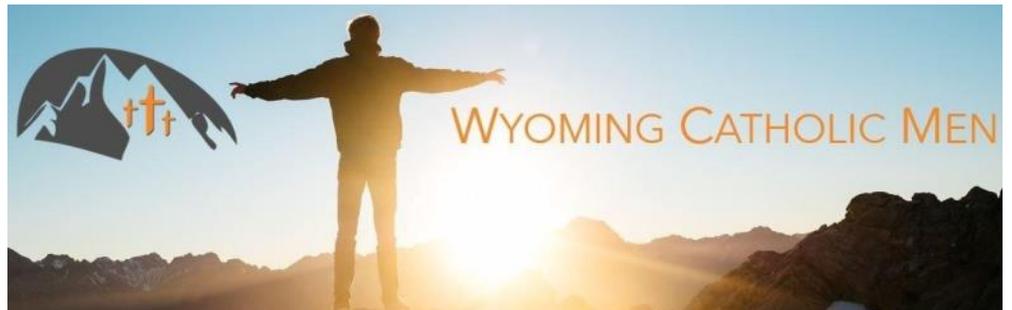

Nunca subestimes el poder de tus acciones. Con un pequeño gesto puedes cambiar la vida de una persona. Para bien o para mal. Dios nos pone a todos en la vida de los demás para impactarnos unos a otros de alguna manera. Busca a Dios en los demás.

Wyoming Catholic Men

Seeking a rebirth, an awakening, in your spiritual life? Would you like to spend a weekend with life-affirming men in search of a deeper encounter with Jesus Christ? After a two-year hiatus, we are pleased to announce Paul George as the featured speaker for the August 19-21, 2022, Wyoming Catholic Men's Retreat at St. Patrick Church in Casper. This annual retreat is an opportunity to get away from the stress of the outside world, and focuses on fellowship, music, and most importantly growing in your faith.

Paul has spent over 25 years helping people discover the art of living through searching themselves, discovering a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, and finding true happiness. He has been a frequent speaker at Steubenville events across the country. CJ Anderson and his talented group of Casper musicians will be providing praise and worship music throughout the retreat.

The retreat begins at 6 PM Friday, August 19, and ends by noon Sunday, August 21. Learn more and register for this year's retreat by visiting wyomingcatholicmen.com. Save $15 off the $65 registration fee if you register a group of four (4) or more! Come on men, find three or more brothers to join you in Casper! We hope to see men from all parishes.

Hombres católicos de Wyoming

¿Buscas un renacimiento, un despertar, en tu vida espiritual? ¿Te gustaría pasar un fin de semana con hombres que afirman la vida en busca de un encuentro más profundo con Jesucristo? Después de una pausa de dos años, nos complace anunciar a Paul George como el orador destacado del retiro de hombres católicos de Wyoming del 19 al 21 de agosto de 2022 en la iglesia St. Patrick en Casper. Este retiro anual es una oportunidad para alejarse del estrés del mundo exterior y se enfoca en el compañerismo, la música y, lo que es más importante, crecer en su fe.

Paul ha pasado más de 25 años ayudando a las personas a descubrir el arte de vivir a través de la búsqueda de sí mismos, descubriendo una relación personal con Jesucristo y encontrando la verdadera felicidad. Ha sido un orador frecuente en los eventos de Steubenville en todo el país. CJ Anderson y su talentoso grupo de músicos de Casper brindarán música de alabanza y adoración durante todo el retiro.

El retiro comienza el viernes 19 de agosto a las 6 p. m. y finaliza el domingo 21 de agosto al mediodía. Obtenga más información y regístrese para el retiro de este año visitando wyomingcatholicmen.com. ¡Ahorre $15 de la tarifa de registro de $65 si registra un grupo de cuatro (4) o más! ¡Vamos, hombres, encuentren tres o más hermanos para que se unan a ustedes en Casper! Esperamos ver hombres de todas las parroquias.

SAINT JOSEPH'S CHILDREN'S HOME THANKS YOU

Saint Joseph's Children's Home would like to thank you for your important and generous support as we continue our mission of high-quality care and service towards children struggling with mental illness. It is only through the generosity of parishioners like you that we are able to operate one of only two residential juvenile psychiatric treatment centers in the state of Wyoming. The healing progress and hope for a better life that we see each day in our children reflects your faithfulness as disciples of Christ, and the strength and generosity of our Catholic community! For more information and to follow our journey of renewal and rehabilitation, please visit us online at stjoseph-wy.org. Have a blessed week!

HOGAR DE NIÑOS SAN JOSÉ GRACIAS

Saint Joseph's Children's Home desea agradecerle su importante y generoso apoyo a medida que continuamos con nuestra misión de atención y servicio de alta calidad para los niños que luchan contra las enfermedades mentales. Es solo a través de la generosidad de feligreses como usted que podemos operar uno de los dos únicos centros residenciales de tratamiento psiquiátrico juvenil en el estado de Wyoming. ¡El progreso de sanación y la esperanza de una vida mejor que vemos cada día en nuestros niños refleja su fidelidad como discípulos de Cristo y la fortaleza y generosidad de nuestra comunidad católica! Para obtener más información y seguir nuestro viaje de renovación y rehabilitación, visítenos en línea en stjoseph-wy.org. ¡Que tengas una semana bendecida!

Dear Parishioners, (A message from Fr. Demetrio)

Last October 2021, I celebrated my 35th anniversary in the priesthood. My brother and sister joined me in that celebration as well as my uncle, a retired priest from the Archdiocese of Seattle. Some parishioners from my previous parishes in Riverton and Douglas were present too. I felt very honored by the celebration that the parish prepared for me. This time I am going back to the Philippines for my annual vacation. I will leave on the 4th of July and return on the 10th of August. This trip will be sentimental for me as I plan to visit the important places where my vocation to the priesthood started (like the seminary I entered way back in 1977) and all the communities/places I was assigned to. I learned that many of my student seminarians, now priests, occupy high positions in their ministries. I feel proud of them, and it would be nice to surprise them with my visit too. Every Filipino returning home will never miss visiting the cemetery and paying respects to their beloved dead. I will do the same. Thank you to the OLM finance council for helping me with my airfare ticket, to our OLM Hispanic group and the finance council of Holy Family in Thayne and their Knights of Columbus for adding to my pocket money. And to Natalie, who is so thoughtful in her little ways. A particular word of thanks to my ever-supportive associate Fr. Phil. Our office will continue to be managed effectively by our business manager Lizzet and her assistant Daniela. All masses during my absence are already covered. I will keep all of you in my prayers! Happy Summer!
Fr. Demetrio

Estimados feligreses, (Un mensaje del Padre Demetrio)

El pasado octubre de 2021 celebré mi 35 aniversario en el sacerdocio. Mi hermano y mi hermana se unieron a mí en esa celebración, así como mi tío, un sacerdote jubilado de la Arquidiócesis de Seattle. También estuvieron presentes algunos feligreses de mis parroquias anteriores en Riverton y Douglas. Me sentí muy honrada por la celebración que me preparó la parroquia. Esta vez vuelvo a Filipinas para mis vacaciones anuales. Saldré el 4 de julio y regresaré el 10 de agosto. Este viaje será sentimental para mí ya que planeo visitar los lugares importantes donde comenzó mi vocación al sacerdocio (como el seminario al que ingresé allá por 1977) y todas las comunidades/lugares a los que fui asignado. Aprendí que muchos de mis estudiantes seminaristas, ahora sacerdotes, ocupan altos cargos en sus ministerios. Me siento orgulloso de ellos, y sería lindo poder sorprenderlos también con mi visita. Cada filipino que regresa a casa nunca dejará de visitar el cementerio y presentar sus respetos a sus amados muertos. Voy a hacer lo mismo. Gracias al consejo de finanzas de OLM por ayudarme con mi boleto de avión, a nuestro grupo hispano de OLM y al consejo de finanzas de Holy Family en Thayne y sus Caballeros de Colón por aumentar mi dinero de bolsillo. Y a Natalie, que es tan atenta en sus pequeños gestos. Una palabra particular de agradecimiento a mi siempre solidario asociado, el P. Fil. Nuestra oficina continuará siendo administrada de manera efectiva por nuestra gerente comercial Lizzet y su asistente Daniela. Todas las misas durante mi ausencia ya están cubiertas. ¡Voy a mantener a todos en mis oraciones!
¡Feliz verano!
