Wyoming Catholic Men

Seeking a rebirth, an awakening, in your spiritual life? Would you like to spend a weekend with life-affirming men in search of a deeper encounter with Jesus Christ? After a two-year hiatus, we are pleased to announce Paul George as the featured speaker for the August 19-21, 2022, Wyoming Catholic Men's Retreat at St. Patrick Church in Casper. This annual retreat is an opportunity to get away from the stress of the outside world, and focuses on fellowship, music, and most importantly growing in your faith.

Paul has spent over 25 years helping people discover the art of living through searching themselves, discovering a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, and finding true happiness. He has been a frequent speaker at Steubenville events across the country. CJ Anderson and his talented group of Casper musicians will be providing praise and worship music throughout the retreat.

The retreat begins at 6 PM Friday, August 19, and ends by noon Sunday, August 21. Learn more and register for this year's retreat by visiting wyomingcatholicmen.com.

Save $15 off the $65 registration fee if you register a group of four (4) or more! Come on men, find three or more brothers to join you in Casper! We hope to see men from all parishes.

Hombres católicos de Wyoming

¿Buscas un renacimiento, un despertar, en tu vida espiritual? ¿Te gustaría pasar un fin de semana con hombres que afirman la vida en busca de un encuentro más profundo con Jesucristo? Después de una pausa de dos años, nos complace anunciar a Paul George como el orador destacado del retiro de hombres católicos de Wyoming del 19 al 21 de agosto de 2022 en la iglesia St. Patrick en Casper. Este retiro anual es una oportunidad para alejarse del estrés del mundo exterior y se enfoca en el compañerismo, la música y, lo que es más importante, crecer en su fe.

Paul ha pasado más de 25 años ayudando a las personas a descubrir el arte de vivir a través de la búsqueda de sí mismos, descubriendo una relación personal con Jesucristo y encontrando la verdadera felicidad. Ha sido un orador frecuente en los eventos de Steubenville en todo el país. CJ Anderson y su talentoso grupo de músicos de Casper brindarán música de alabanza y adoración durante todo el retiro.

El retiro comienza el viernes 19 de agosto a las 6 p. m. y finaliza el domingo 21 de agosto al mediodía. Obtenga más información y regístrese para el retiro de este año visitando wyomingcatholicmen.com. ¡Ahorre $15 de la tarifa de registro de $65 si registra un grupo de cuatro (4) o más! ¡Vamos, hombres, encuentren tres o más hermanos para que se unan a ustedes en Casper! Esperamos ver hombres de todas las parroquias.

Have you ever entertained strangers? What do you think of Hebrews 13:2 which reads, "Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares?" Abraham and Sarah unknowingly entertained strangers. Those strangers turned out to be God and some of his angels! And because of Abraham and Sarah's gracious hospitality, God says to them, "You've been so good to me that this time next year I will come back, because Sarah, in her old age, will bear a child."

Thinking of Abraham and Sarah, and Martha and Mary in the gospel, I thought of the Old Velveteen Rabbit episode. And although it's been read many times by young and old alike, I think we ought to listen to it with fresh ears because it's so applicable. It's that particular scene when the Velveteen rabbit and the Old Skin Horse are lying in the pantry, and the young Velveteen rabbit is starting to make conversation to while away the time, and asks:

"What is real? Does it mean having things that buzz inside of you, and a stick-out handle?" "Real isn't how you are made," said the skin horse. "It's a thing that happens to you. When a child loves you for a long, long time, not just to play with, but really loves you, then you become real." "Does it hurt?" asked the rabbit. "Sometimes," said the old skin horse, for he was always truthful. "But when you are real, you don't mind being hurt."

"Does it happen all at once, like being wound up?" he asked, "or bit by bit?" "It doesn't happen all at once," said the old skin horse, "you become. It takes a long time. That's why it doesn't often happen to people who break easily, or have sharp edges, or have to be carefully kept. Generally, by the time you are real, most of your hair has been loved off, your eyes drop out, you get loose in the joints, and very shabby. But these things don't matter at all, because once you are real, you can't be ugly, except to people who don't understand."

"I suppose you are real," said the rabbit, and then he wished he had not said it, for he thought the old skin horse might be sensitive. But the old skin horse only smiled. "The boy's uncle made me real," he said. "That was a great many years ago, but once you are real, you can't become unreal again. It lasts for always."

That's a part of the hospitality, isn't it? It makes people real, and the nice thing is that it lasts for always.

Hacedores de la Palabra Domingo, 17 de julio de 2022 ¿Qué es real?

¿Alguna vez has recibido a extraños? ¿Qué piensas de Hebreos 13:2 que dice: "No os olvidéis de la hospitalidad con los extraños, porque por ella algunos sin saberlo hospedaron ángeles?" Abraham y Sara, sin saberlo, hospedaron a extraños. ¡Esos extraños resultaron ser Dios y algunos de sus ángeles! Y debido a la Graciosa hospitalidad de Abraham y Sara, Dios les dice: "Habéis sido tan buenos conmigo que el año que viene volveré por esta época, porque Sara, en su vejez, dará a luz un hijo".

Pensando en Abraham y Sara, y Marta y María en el evangelio, pensé en el episodio del viejo conejo de terciopelo. Y aunque ha sido leído muchas veces por jóvenes y mayores, creo que deberíamos escucharlo con oídos frescos porque es muy aplicable. Es esa escena en particular cuando el conejo de terciopelo y el caballo de piel vieja están acostados en la despensa, y el conejo de terciopelo joven comienza a conversar para pasar el tiempo y pregunta:

"¿Qué es real? ¿Significa tener cosas que zumban dentro de ti y un asa que sobresale?" "Real no es cómo estás hecho", dijo el caballo de piel. "Es una cosa que te pasa a ti. Cuando un niño te ama durante mucho, mucho tiempo, no solo para jugar, sino que realmente te ama, entonces te vuelves real". "¿Duele?" preguntó el conejo. "A veces", dijo el viejo caballo de piel, porque siempre decía la verdad. "Pero cuando eres real, no te importa que te lastimen".

"¿Ocurre todo a la vez, como si te estuvieran dando cuerda?" preguntó, "¿o poco a poco?" "No sucede todo a la vez", dijo el viejo caballo de piel, "te conviertes. Toma mucho tiempo. Es por eso que no le sucede a menudo a las personas que se rompen fácilmente, o que tienen bordes afilados, o que deben cuidarse con cuidado. Generalmente, cuando eres real, la mayor parte de tu cabello ha sido cortado con amor, tus ojos se caen, las articulaciones se te sueltan y estás muy andrajoso. Pero estas cosas no importan en absoluto, porque una vez que eres real, no puedes ser feo, excepto para las personas que no entienden".

"Supongo que eres real", dijo el conejo, y luego deseó no haberlo dicho, porque pensó que el viejo caballo de piel podría ser sensible. Pero el viejo caballo de piel solo sonrió. "El tío del niño me hizo real", dijo. "Eso fue hace muchos años, pero una vez que eres real, no puedes volver a ser irreal. Dura para siempre."
