From Sr. Remedii in Turkey:

This is a quick message to let everyone know that we are all safe and well.

Many of you will have seen that the Iskenderun Cathedral has collapsed in the earthquake. Our convent in the same diocese is probably also uninhabitable in the long term. We have been blessed to have daily Mass and hopefully in the next few days/weeks we will have some plans for what we will do after the earthquake.

Please keep the people here in your hearts and in your prayers. They are suffering a lot, but God has protected the Christian community in an amazing way. Their courage and faith is inspiring, as are their heartfelt tears for the loss of "bizim evimiz"... tears not for their homes, but for their church. Likewise the strength they gained from seeing the statue of Mary our Blessed Mother stand firm.

We have been trying to keep a low profile here, but it has become a little more difficult with the earthquake and journalists everywhere. For this reason we are limiting the number of messages we send to family and friends, etc. if you don't hear anything it's just that we're trying to contain the information about us that's in the media. For this reason we ask you all to please not share this message or share any photos you might have of us here.

After the Cross comes the resurrection....likewise, after the earthquake the church will rise from the rubble.

Please keep us in your prayers and know that you are in ours too.

Dear Parishioners,

My announced two week trip is cancelled. Let us fervently look forward for the coming festivities of the liturgical year. God is good.

Fr. Demetrio

Estimados feligreses,

Mi viaje anunciado de dos semanas está cancelado. Aguardemos con fervor las próximas festividades del año litúrgico. Dios es bueno.

Padre Demetrio

Changing partners or changing language.

Matthew 4 describes the devil as a tempter, a view that has remained common throughout the centuries. Each of the devil's suggestions to Jesus represents a specific sin: greed, gluttony, and pride.

In Medieval mystery plays and religious drama, the devil would often appear to tempt a character into doing something wrong. An example is the "ORDO VIRTUTUM," written by the German Benedictine Abbess (1098-1179), Hildegard of Bingen, which features the devil fighting against the virtues over a human soul.

The devil was also presented as a tempter in two influential books: The Divine Comedy by Dante and Paradise Lost by John Milton.

Today's "temptation" questions are "How could God take my child? How could I get cancer? How could I lose my job? How could my marriage fail? Why is life so unfair? Why do people kill each other? Why do nations go to war? Why do we argue over basic human rights? I'm a good Catholic. I go to Church every Sunday, am honest, and live a good life. How could God do this to me? I've been so faithful, and look at this! Why is God punishing me? What did I do to deserve this? God doesn't love me anymore!"

Jesus gives us a powerful truth in a language that many Christians have not learned. It's all in the language, folks! The Father's love for us is the guarantee that He will always stand by me in my pain. Jesus would show the truth of his words one day, in deep agony, he would have to struggle to move from "Father, take this chalice from me" to "Into your hands I commend my spirit."

When we have learned the language of God, we have learned the language of heaven. Why wait? Learn the language now!

Hacedores de la Palabra : Primer domingo de Cuaresma, 26 de febrero de 2023

Cambiar de pareja o cambiar de idioma.

Mateo 4 describe al diablo como un tentador, una visión que se ha mantenido común a lo largo de los siglos. Cada una de las sugerencias del diablo a Jesús representa un pecado específico: avaricia, gula y orgullo.

En las obras de misterio medievales y los dramas religiosos, el diablo a menudo aparecía para tentar a un personaje a hacer algo malo. Un ejemplo es el "ORDO VIRTUTUM", escrito por la abadesa benedictina alemana (1098-1179), Hildegarda de Bingen, que presenta el diablo luchando contra las virtudes sobre un alma humana.

El diablo también fue presentado como un tentador en dos libros influyentes: La Divina Comedia de Dante y El Paraíso Perdido de John Milton.

Las preguntas de la "tentación" de hoy son: "¿Cómo podría Dios llevarse a mi hijo? ¿Cómo podría tener cáncer? ¿Cómo podría perder mi trabajo? ¿Cómo podría fracasar mi matrimonio? ¿Por qué la vida es tan injusta? ¿Por qué la gente se mata entre sí? ¿Por qué las naciones van a la guerra? ¿Por qué discutimos sobre los derechos humanos básicos? Soy un buen católico. Voy a la iglesia todos los domingos, soy honesto y vivo una buena vida. ¿Cómo pudo Dios hacerme esto? ¡He sido tan fiel, y mira esto! ¿Por qué Dios me castiga? ¿Qué hice para merecer esto? ¡Dios ya no me ama!"

Jesús nos da una verdad poderosa en un idioma que muchos cristianos no han aprendido. ¡Todo está en el idioma, amigos! El amor del Padre por nosotros es la garantía de que Él siempre estará a mi lado en mi dolor. Jesús mostraría la verdad de sus palabras un día, en profunda agonía, tendría que luchar para pasar del "Padre, aparta de mí este cáliz" al "En tus manos encomiendo mi espíritu".

Cuando hemos aprendido el idioma de Dios, hemos aprendido el idioma del cielo. ¿Por qué esperar? ¡Aprende el idioma ahora!

It is full of daily Mass reading and daily meditations for each day of Lent.

Orando con Jesús esta Cuaresma

La oración es una de las prácticas tradicionales del Tiempo de Cuaresma que nos ayuda a crecer en nuestro amor a Dios y al prójimo y nos prepara para la Alegría de la Pascua. Una forma en que podemos profundizar nuestra vida de oración durante la Cuaresma es reflexionar sobre las enseñanzas y oraciones de nuestro Maestro, Jesús. Recoja una copia del folleto La Palabra Entre nosotros de la mesa redonda para guiar su jornada de oración esta Cuaresma. Está lleno de lecturas diarias de la Misa y meditaciones diarias para cada día de Cuaresma.
