Doers of the Word Sunday, April 16, 2023, 2nd Easter Walking Wounded!

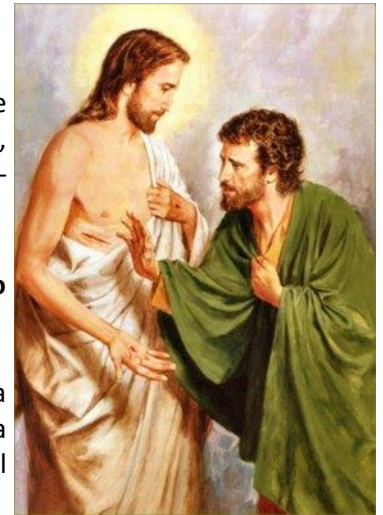

So many people are hurting in the Church. So many people are leaving the church. The last time so many people left the church was 500 years ago during the Protestant Reformation. Today, former catholics form the second largest "religious" group in the country. For every convert to the church, six catholics leave.

Surveys show that only 22% of catholics attend Mass weekly. Catholics are becoming less engaged with church. The catholic demand for the sacraments has declined. The closing or blending of parishes, the closing of thousands of catholic schools - in 1965 we had 10,000 of them, today only 5,000. There is the crisis of clergy shortage. In 1990, we had 34,000 priests, and in 2014, just 26,000. Today we have some 16,500 active priests - statistics that translate as one priest for every 1,762 catholics. Predictions are there will be 25% less priests in the coming years.

There is hope. Our strengths are many: charitable, health care, and educational systems; outreaches like St. Vincent de Paul societies; Catholic Charities; many small confraternities and Bible study groups; countless dedicated people helping the poor and needy; religious and monastic communities dedicated to prayer, and retreat centers.

Pope Francis is determined to have less "church" and more "Jesus". A wounded and resurrected Jesus, showing himself to his disciples with the scars still in place. . A wounded church. A wounded healer. As one writer put it, "A church of one billion persons and more than 200,000 parishes will not be revitalized by the action of a Pope and some 200 cardinals. Rather revitalization will happen only when a critical mass of engaged catholics steps up and leads." (Hurting in the Church by Fr. Thomas Berg, 2017.)

The Risen Christ still wears the marks of His wounds. So do we. When called like the prophets of old, be prepared to answer, "Here I am, Lord, Send me." Thomas said, touching the wounds of Jesus, "My Lord and my God." (Everyone Leads by Chris Lowney, Rowman & Littlefield, 2017.)

Hacedores de la Palabra Domingo, 16 de abril de 2023, 2º Semana Santa ¡Caminando Heridos!

Tanta gente está sufriendo en la Iglesia. Mucha gente se está yendo de la iglesia. La última vez que tanta gente abandonó la iglesia fue hace 500 años durante la Reforma protestante. Hoy, los ex católicos forman el segundo grupo "religioso" más grande del país. Por cada converso a la iglesia, salen seis católicos.

Las encuestas muestran que solo el 22% de los católicos asisten a Misa semanalmente. Los católicos están cada vez menos comprometidos con la iglesia. La demanda católica de los sacramentos ha disminuido. El cierre o la fusión de parroquias, el cierre de miles de escuelas católicas: en 1965 teníamos 10.000, hoy solo 5.000. Está la crisis de escasez de clero. En 1990 teníamos 34.000 sacerdotes y en 2014 solo 26.000. Hoy tenemos unos 16.500 sacerdotes activos, estadísticas que se traducen en un sacerdote por cada 1.762 católicos. Las predicciones son que habrá un 25% menos de sacerdotes en los próximos años.

Hay esperanza. Nuestras fortalezas son muchas: caridad, cuidado de la salud y sistemas educativos; alcances como las sociedades de San Vicente de Paúl; Caridades Católicas; muchas pequeñas cofradías y grupos de estudio de la Biblia; innumerables personas dedicadas a ayudar a los pobres y necesitados; comunidades religiosas y monásticas dedicadas a la oración, y centros de retiro.

El Papa Francisco está decidido a tener menos "iglesia" y más "Jesús". Un Jesús herido y resucitado, mostrándose a sus discípulos con las cicatrices aún en su lugar. . Una iglesia herida. Un sanador herido. Como lo expresó un escritor, "Una iglesia de mil millones de personas y más de 200,000 parroquias no será revitalizada por la acción de un Papa y unos 200 cardenales. Más bien, la revitalización ocurrirá solo cuando una masa crítica de católicos comprometidos dé un paso adelante y lidere". (Dolor en la Iglesia por el Padre Thomas Berg, 2017.)

Dear Parishioners of Our Lady of the Mountains and Holy Family,

Since I spent time in California during my three-month sabbatical in early 2022, learning about hospital chaplaincy, I have been deeply drawn toward chaplaincy as a possible new ministry. Chaplaincy has always been in my heart since I started parish ministry in 2008. But I was shy to openly talk about it because I wasn't sure whether I could do it or was allowed to do it. It is my dream to dedicate my last remaining years in active ministry to the needs of those who can no longer physically come to church because of old age, infirmity, or because they are in prison. I thought that when parishioners are in these situations, the church should be the one to go to them. This is what I now feel called to do.

With the support of our Bishop, I have been granted one year away from the Diocese of Cheyenne to continue my chaplaincy training. It is my goal to become a certified chaplain. My training will be at St. Mary's Hospital in Richmond, Virginia. The program will start on August 28, 2023, and end on August 30, 2024. I am sure the Lord will show me which particular chaplaincy ministry is right for me one day. Therefore, effective June 30, 2023, I will resign as Pastor of Our Lady of the Mountains and the missions of Holy Family and the Chapel of the Sacred Heart in Grand Teton National Park. Fr. Phil and Deacon Doug will share the responsibility of managing the parish and its missions until the Bishop comes up with a permanent plan. I intend to take my annual vacation first before I report to Virginia.

I have cherished my time here in Jackson and Star Valley. It is with very mixed feelings that I am leaving you. You are people who love your faith and your church, who act out that love in your daily lives, and who support and care for your priests. I thank you for that.

I also know that my leaving leaves you, again, with a pastor who is departing before the end of his six-year assignment. I sincerely apologize for that. I must follow what I believe is God's voice speaking to me. While I cannot definitively tell you who will be your new pastor, you need to know that Bishop Steven does have a plan, and he will be sharing that with all of us very soon. God bless us all, and Happy Divine Mercy Sunday!

Love you all in Christ,

Fr. Demetrio

Estimados feligreses de Nuestra Señora de las Montañas y Sagrada Familia,

Desde que pasé un tiempo en California durante mi año sabático de tres meses a principios de 2022, aprendiendo sobre la capellanía de hospitales, me ha atraído profundamente la capellanía como un posible nuevo ministerio. La capellanía siempre ha estado en mi corazón desde que comencé el ministerio parroquial en 2008. Pero me daba vergüenza hablar abiertamente al respecto porque no estaba segura de si podía hacerlo o si me permitían hacerlo. Es mi sueño dedicar los últimos años que me quedan en el ministerio activo a las necesidades de aquellos que ya no pueden asistir físicamente a la iglesia debido a la vejez, la enfermedad o porque están en prisión. Pensé que cuando los feligreses están en estas situaciones, la iglesia debe ser la que vaya a ellos. Esto es lo que ahora me siento llamado a hacer.

Con el apoyo de nuestro obispo, se me ha otorgado un año fuera de la Diócesis de Cheyenne para continuar con mi capacitación como capellán. Mi objetivo es convertirme en un capellán certificado. Mi entrenamiento será en el Hospital St. Mary en Richmond, Virginia. El programa comenzará el 28 de agosto de 2023 y finalizará el 30 de agosto de 2024. Estoy seguro de que el Señor me mostrará algún día qué ministerio de capellanía en particular es el adecuado para mí. Por lo tanto, a partir del 30 de junio de 2023, renunciaré como párroco de Nuestra Señora de las Montañas y las misiones de la Sagrada Familia y la Capilla del Sagrado Corazón en el Parque Nacional Grand Teton. Padre Phil y el diácono Doug compartirán la responsabilidad de administrar la parroquia y sus misiones hasta que el obispo presente un plan permanente. Tengo la intención de tomarme mis vacaciones anuales primero antes de presentarme en Virginia.

He apreciado mi tiempo aquí en Jackson y Star Valley. Es con sentimientos muy encontrados que los dejo. Ustedes son personas que aman su fe y su iglesia, que manifiestan ese amor en su vida diaria y que apoyan y cuidan a sus sacerdotes. Le doy las gracias por ello.

También sé que mi partida los deja, nuevamente, con un pastor que se va antes del final de su asignación de seis años. Me disculpo sinceramente por eso. Debo seguir lo que creo que es la voz de Dios que me habla. Si bien no puedo decirle definitivamente quién será su nuevo pastor, debe saber que el obispo Steven tiene un plan y lo compartirá con todos nosotros muy pronto. Dios nos bendiga a todos, y ¡Feliz Domingo de la Divina Misericordia!

Los amo a todos en Cristo,

Padre Demetrio
