Lynn Anderson and his wife Carolyn were traveling in Palestine. As they traveled, they were enchanted by the scenery, history and lifestyle of the people as told by the tour guide. In his description, the guide engaged in a heart-warming portrayal of the relationship of a shepherd with his sheep. The guide told the people that a shepherd feeds the sheep with care, and how he is always gentle with them.

The guide pointed out that because the shepherd leads the sheep, instead of driving them, there is never any reason for the shepherd to be harsh with the sheep. The sheep love and trust the shepherd, and the shepherd loves his sheep.

The tour guide went on to say that on a past tour, he was telling the tourists the same message about the beautiful relationship between shepherd and sheep. In the middle of his pastoral tale, however, he suddenly lost his audience. All of them were looking out one side of the bus' windows at a man chasing a herd of sheep. He was throwing rocks at them, whacking them with sticks, and siccing the sheep dog on them.

The tour guide told his audience how he had become so angry, that he jumped out of the bus, ran to the man chasing the sheep, and accosted him. The guide said, "Do you know what you have just done? I was telling a charming story about how gentle shepherds are and how the sheep love him. And here you are, mistreating and assaulting these sheep. What is going on? Just what kind of a no-good shepherd are you!"

The man looked bewildered for a minute and then replied, "Shepherd? Shepherd! I'm not the shepherd! I'm the butcher!"

The poor butcher taught the tourists what a shepherd is by showing them the opposite of what a shepherd is. (They Smell Like Sheep, Lynn Anderson (Howard Publishing Company, 1997.)

- Sheep need to learn to recognize their shepherd. To follow Jesus, we need to know him.
- Though we recognize Jesus as the Good Shepherd we must be careful not to be led astray by those who are not Jesus.
- We need to evaluate the triple-love command of Jesus - to love God, to love others, as we love ourselves.

Hacedores de la Palabra 21 de abril de 2024 BUEN PASTOR Pastor o Carnicero

Lynn Anderson y su esposa Carolyn viajaban por Palestina. Mientras viajaban, quedaron encantados con el paisaje, la historia y el estilo de vida de la gente contados por el guía turístico. En su descripción, el guía realizó un retrato conmovedor de la relación de un pastor con sus ovejas. El guía le dijo a la gente que un pastor alimenta a las ovejas con cuidado y que siempre es amable con ellas.

El guía señaló que debido a que el pastor guía a las ovejas, en lugar de conducir las, nunca hay razón para que el pastor sea duro con las ovejas. Las ovejas aman y confían en el pastor, y el pastor ama a sus ovejas.

El guía turístico continuó diciendo que en un recorrido anterior, les estaba diciendo a los turistas el mismo mensaje sobre la hermosa relación entre el pastor y las ovejas. Sin embargo, en medio de su relato pastoral, de repente perdió su audiencia. Todos miraban por un lado de las ventanillas del autobús a un hombre que perseguía un rebaño de ovejas. Les lanzaba piedras, los golpeaba con palos y los golpeaba con el perro pastor. El guía turístico le contó a su audiencia cómo se había enojado tanto que saltó del autobús, corrió hacia el hombre que perseguía a las ovejas y lo abordó. El guía dijo: “¿Sabes lo que acabas de hacer? Estaba contando una historia encantadora sobre lo amables que son los pastores y cómo las ovejas lo aman. Y aquí estáis, maltratando y agrediendo a estas ovejas. ¿Qué está pasando? ¡Qué clase de mal pastor eres!

El hombre pareció desconcertado por un minuto y luego respondió: “¿Pastor? ¡Pastor! ¡Yo no soy el pastor! ¡Soy el carnicero!

El pobre carnicero enseñó a los turistas qué es un pastor mostrándoles lo contrario de lo que es un pastor. (Huelen a ovejas, Lynn Anderson (Howard Publishing Company, 1997).

- Las ovejas necesitan aprender a reconocer a su pastor. Para seguir a Jesús, necesitamos conocerlo.
- Aunque reconocemos a Jesús como el Buen Pastor, debemos tener cuidado de no dejarnos desviar por aquellos que no son Jesús.
- Necesitamos evaluar el triple mandamiento de Jesús: amar a Dios y amar a los demás como nos amamos a nosotros mismos.

POPE FRANCIS PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

LORD of the Harvest,
BLESS young people with the gift of courage to respond to your call. Open their hearts to great ideals, to great things.

INSPIRE all of your disciples to mutual love and giving - for vocations blossom in the good soil of faithful people.

INSTIL those in religious life, parish ministries, and families with the confidence and grace to invite others to embrace the bold and noble path of a life consecrated to you.

UNITE us to Jesus through prayer and sacrament, so that we may cooperate with you in building your reign of mercy and truth, of justice and peace. AMEN.

My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think that I am following Your will does not mean that I am actually doing so. But I believe that the desire to please You does in fact please You. And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing. I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire. And I know that if I do this You will lead me by the right road though I may know nothing about it.
Therefore I will trust You always though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death. I will not fear, for You are ever with me, and You will never leave me to face my perils alone.
