Doers of the Word - April 7, 2024, 2nd Sunday Easter- Divine Mercy Sunday

The story of an extraordinary woman: Her husband had been injured in a fire while attempting to save his parents from a burning house. They unfortunately perished, and his face was terribly burned and disfigured. The man in fact was so self-conscious that he wouldn't let anyone see him, even his wife. Finally, after weeks of his self-imposed exile, the wife went to Dr Maxwell Maltz, a plastic surgeon and well-known author. He told the woman not to worry, that he could restore her husband's face. But she replied. "You don't understand, Doctor. He won't let anyone see him. He won't accept any help."

"Then why are you here?" asked the doctor.

She replied. "If I can share in his pain then maybe he will let me back into his life."

Dr. Maltz says he was shocked and told her that he could never do anything like that. But he was so moved by this woman's love that he went to speak to the husband. Knocking on the man's door, he spoke loudly, "My name is Doctor Maltz. I am a plastic surgeon and I want you to know that I can restore your face." No response. "Please come out." No response.

Still speaking through the door, Dr. Maltz told the man of his wife's proposal. "She wants me to disfigure her face like yours in the hope that you will let her back into your life. That's how much she loves you."

There was a brief moment of silence and then, ever so slowly, the door-knob began to turn.

Jesus' disciples were like the husband: hiding in fear behind locked doors, disfigured with their own betrayals and cowardice. Jesus appears in their midst - and here you must notice, cannot fail to notice - he appears with his wounds! Maybe, Jesus feels, if he, like the wife of our story, can appear before them disfigured, they will let him back into their disfigured lives.

When it hurts too much to hope, when life has wounded us, when faith is exhausted, know that the risen Jesus with disfiguring wounds is waiting to get into our disfigured and fearful lives and call us out of our fears.

Jesus got his wounds on Good Friday. He is willing to come through the doors we've used to shut him out and is standing outside with those terrible wounds searching out our terrible wounds, letting us know he understands where we're coming from and that he can give us peace and wholeness. Go and repeat the last three words of the Bible, "Come, Lord Jesus!"

Hacedores de la Palabra - 7 de abril de 2024, 2do Domingo de Pascua - Domingo de la Divina Misericordia

La historia de una mujer extraordinaria: su marido resultó herido en un incendio mientras intentaba salvar a sus padres de una casa en llamas. Lamentablemente fallecieron y su rostro quedó terriblemente quemado y desfigurado. De hecho, el hombre estaba tan cohibido que no dejaba que nadie lo viera, ni siquiera su esposa. Finalmente, después de semanas de su exilio autoimpuesto, la esposa acudió al Dr. Maxwell Maltz, cirujano plástico y conocido autor. Le dijo a la mujer que no se preocupara, que él podía restaurar el rostro de su marido. Pero ella respondió. "No lo entiende, doctor. No dejaré que nadie lo vea. "No aceptará ninguna ayuda".

"¿Entonces, porque estas aquí?" preguntó el médico.

Ella respondió. Si puedo compartir su dolor, tal vez me permita volver a su vida".

El Dr. Maltz dice que se sorprendió y le dijo que nunca podría hacer algo así. Pero quedó tan conmovido por el amor de esta mujer que fue a hablar con el marido. Llamando a la puerta del hombre, habló en voz alta: "Mi nombre es Doctor Maltz. "Soy cirujano plástico y quiero que sepas que puedo restaurar tu rostro". Ninguna respuesta.

"Por favor, sal". Ninguna respuesta.

Aún hablando a través de la puerta, el Dr. Maltz le contó al hombre la propuesta de su esposa. "Ella quiere que le desfigure la cara como la tuya con la esperanza de que la dejes regresar a tu vida. "Eso es lo mucho que ella te ama".

Hubo un breve momento de silencio y luego, muy lentamente, el pomo de la puerta empezó a girar.

Los discípulos de Jesús eran como el marido: escondidos con miedo detrás de puertas cerradas, desfigurados por sus propias traiciones y cobardías. Jesús aparece en medio de ellos - y aquí tenéis que notarlo, no podéis dejar de notarlo - ¡aparece con sus llagas! Tal vez, siente Jesús, si él, como la esposa de nuestra historia, puede aparecer ante ellos desfigurado, lo dejarán regresar a sus vidas desfiguradas.

Cuando duele demasiado tener esperanza, cuando la vida nos ha herido, cuando la fe se agota, sepan que Jesús resucitado con heridas desfigurantes está esperando entrar en nuestras vidas desfiguradas y temerosas y llamarnos a salir de nuestros miedos.

Jesús recibió sus heridas el Viernes Santo. Él está dispuesto a atravesar las puertas que hemos utilizado para excluirlo y está parado afuera con esas terribles heridas buscando nuestras terribles heridas, haciéndonos saber que entiende de dónde venimos y que puede darnos paz y plenitud. . Ve y repite las últimas tres palabras de la Biblia: "¡Ven, Señor Jesús!"
